

New regulations joint membership fee BSCRS-BCLSO/ESCRS 2023

1. FOR OPHTHALMOLOGISTS

BSCRS-BCLSO joined AOB on January 2022. Many of you responded extremely positively on this initiative and this was highly appreciated.

Your BSCRS-BCLSO membership comprises not only a national membership but offers you the opportunity to become ESCRS member at a reduced fee of 100 EURO.

New since 2023: your membership fee paid through AOB / BSCRS-BCLSO in 2022 will count for ESCRS membership 2023. If you join BSCRS-ECLSO this year through AOB website and you tick/pay for ESCRS, you are all set for ESCRS membership 2024!!

Your ESCRS advantages:

- Reduced registration fees for the ESCRS Annual Congress and Winter Meetings
- Subscription to the ESCRS Journal of Cataract and Refractive Surgery
- ESCRS iLearn - take online CME accredited courses
- ESCRS On Demand - an online library of videos, posters, presentations, slides and symposia from the ESCRS Annual Congress and Winter Meetings since 2007
- EUREQUO - an online registry for quality outcomes of cataract and refractivesurgeries
- Access to ESCRS awards, grants and bursaries
- Voting rights in ESCRS Board elections (European full members only)

2. FOR TRAINEES

Your ESCRS advantages

- Free of charge trainee membership is available for a maximum of 5 consecutive years.
- It is open to trainees, fellows and residents, who are under 35 years of age for the full duration of their membership period.
- All applicants must provide you with a verification letter from their employer.
- Trainees will not receive a printed copy of the ESCRS Journal of Cataract and Refractive Surgery, subscription is online only.
- Trainees will have access to the following education platform: i-learn and ESCRS on demand.
- Trainees will not have voting rights in ESCRS Board elections